A TIME AND A PURPOSE

What is Autumn? the mellowing of hot summer days -- warm and pleasant; overcast rainy days -- a foretaste of winter; chilly mornings and evenings -- stimulating and invigorating. A time when crops are harvested, vegetables stored, the ground tilled and left fallow. A time of richness as the countryside abounds in the changing colours of autumn leaves and flowers bloom to bursting point. A time for checking that our houses are strong and weatherproof and a time to replenish our fuel supplies. Autumn is a time of preparation.

What is Winter? A countryside laced with frost covered cobwebs and glistening frosty crystals; fog drifting majestically down mountain ridges to encompass the land; rain to refresh the soil; crisp clean air; the warmth of a glowing fire; plenty of hot nourishing food; a cosy chair in which to relax; time to spin some wool, carve an ornament, read or play cards. Winter is a time of rest and security.

What is Spring? Evidence of new life everywhere as young creatures are born and flowers break into bloom; people shrugging off the leisurely influence of winter as the soft warm days increases the desires for activity. Spring is a time of growth, renewal and rebirth.

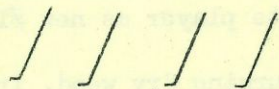

What is Summer? Hot sunny days to use as we choose; warm fragrant nights in which to study the stars and wonder at the immensity of the universe; a relaxed lazy time as we see the efforts of month's of toil rewarded as the produce of the land reaches fruition. Summer is a time of fulfilment.

To many people the Seasons do not hold these charms or serve any real purpose. They hate the autumn for it signifies the approach of long dreary winter. They don't particularly like the spring because their conscience tells them that while conditions are favourable they should be working and preparing for the months ahead but they lack the incentive to do so. In summer they grumble about the heat and long for the coolness of autumn but then they remember the cold loneliness of winter and they are miserable and afraid.

Could their attitude to the Seasons simply be a reflection of their approach to Life? Those with little or no faith in the Creator cannot understand the Creation for although they themselves are a part they are alienated from it. Could Autumn with its signs of all things preparing for winter make them afraid because of their own lack of preparation and purpose in life? Could Winter, with its apparent emptiness and lack of life be a symbol of death? Does Spring have no meaning because they do not believe in the renewal and rebirth of the soul? Does Summer offer discomfort because they have failed to find the fulfilment of knowing God?

Joy can be found in the Seasons for these at one with Creation and at peace with the Creator. Every day is like an Autumn day used in preparation, making ourselves acceptable to God and Mankind. Winter can be symbolic of death, for death, like winter is a time of rest from the labours of our physical being. Spring can come anytime for the renewal and rebirth comes with a growing knowledge of God. Like the yields of Summer signify our efforts throughout the year so are we fulfilled by God according to how we live our lives.

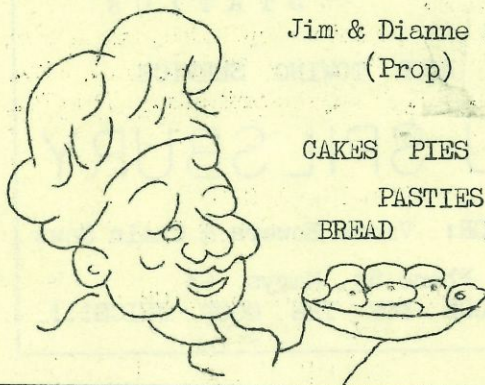

Like the variations of the Seasons we should accept the variations and challenges of Life for as the cycle of the Seasons is never changing even more reliable is the Creator of them.

TO THE EDITOR.

This is a protest against wanton destruction by P.W.D. men — of beautiful wild cherry trees, which, until last week, were growing amongst rocks, on the steep banks of St. Marys Pass. The P.W.D. should get expert advice on native trees and shrubs, before destroying them along country roads — the slashing down of some types of trees and bushes is unnecessary and a waste of money. Wild cherry trees grow upright against hills and do not obscure road vision for motorists. They also have a useful role in holding back natural bush mulch — (sticks, bark leaves) which would otherwise fall on to the road, and a thick layer of mulch assists in causing rain water to soak into the ground rather than gushing down and causing land slips. The St. Marys Pass area is a scenic reserve, and should be treated as such, even by the P.W.D.

TEN STEPS TO IMPROVE HUMAN RELATIONS

1. Speak to people; there is nothing as nice as a cheerful word of greeting.
2. Smile at people; it takes seventy two muscles to frown and only fourteen to smile.
3. Call people by name; the sweetest music to anyone's ear is the sound of his own name.
4. Be friendly and helpful; if you would have friends, be friendly.
5. Be cordial; speak and act as if every thing you do is a real pleasure.
6. Be genuinely interested in people; you can like everyone if you try.
7. Be generous with praise; cautious with criticism.
8. Be considerate of the feelings of others; it will be appreciated.
9. Be thoughtful of the opinion of others; it will be appreciated.
10. Be alert to give service; what counts most in life is what we do for others.

BREAD & CHEESE

Most of the people who have been interested in "Bread & Cheese" over the past ten years know that these gatherings are no longer held.

Those who have been closely connected with it regret this, but declining interest and support are the reasons.
At the "Bread & Cheese" held at the Presbytery on 25th March it was agreed to close the bank account and forward the balance of $58.73 to the Australia Red Cross Society (Tasmanian Division) Hobart to be used for overseas aid.
This has now been done, and I have the official receipt from Mr. G. McRhee, secretary.

FINGAL VALLEY MEALS ON WHEELS ASSOCIATION PRESIDENTS REPORT. 18th May 1976.

I take much pleasure in presenting this the fifth Annual Report of the Fingal Valley Meals on Wheels Association.

It is pleasing to report that during the past 12 months a total of 3,354 meals (to the end of April) have been delivered to recipients by our willing group of volunteers drivers.

The kitchen staff of the hospital, led by Mrs. J. Margison have once again proved very efficient in the preparation of the appertising and eagerly accepted meals. My thanks go to them, and also the Board who allow them to prepare the meals and allow us to use the Hospital for meetings.

A Meals on Wheels organisation would never be able to operate without the provision of "Wheels", and may I take this opportunity to thank the 92 volunteers who so readily give up their time to deliver a midday meal to the Senior Citizens of the community. May I make particular mention of the 45 Fingal drivers who regularly travel approx. 30 miles to deliver the meals. We are always on the lookout for more drivers if you know of anyone interested please contact Mr. J. Miller, B. Saunders or myself.

The local group is in a financially sound position with a credit balance of $788.75 and an investment account balance of $1353.37. The group is affiliated with the Meals on Wheels Association, who are prepared to assist us should we need assistance.

The machinery behind the functioning of the group is the committee of 12 members; Messrs J. Napier, J. Owens, J. Miller, B. Saunders, and L. Rubenach; Mesdames K. Lohrey J. Margison, R. Gill and P. Davern; Matron Whitworth, Sister Refshaw and myself. I would personally like to thank them all for their assistance throughout the past year. In particular I would like to thank the treasurer, Mr. Napier, for the way he has administered the financial side of the organisation; also the secretary, Mr. Owens, who unfortunately resigned his position towards the end of last year, he has certainly been missed;

FISHING NEWS.

No further contests were held during the last fortnight so there are no results to report in this edition. However, anglers are reporting some good catches from the Chain of Lagoons beaches, Wrinklers to Stieglitz in George Bay. Next Sunday, the Annual contest between St. Helens Surf Angling Club and Scamander Angling Club will take place at Wrinklers Beach from 11am. to 4pm. All members from each Club are eligible to compete and St. Helens are requested to bring the shield with them in case they have to hand it over. All fish will be weighed and the total weight divided by the number of anglers on each team, giving an average overall weight. Scamander Club are hoping that Jack Midson can sprain his wrist before next Sunday. Preliminary notice is given of two important social events in the fishing world. Scamander Angling Club will hold their annual meeting followed by a dinner with a trophy presentation to follow. This will be held on Saturday 26th June next, starting at 6.30 pm. All members will receive written notice in due course but mark the date in your diary or calendar. St. Helens Game Fishing Club will have their annual meeting & dinner on Saturday 7th August. Both clubs may have to restrict the admissions to members and their wives or girl friends only. So, if you have friends which you would particularly like to invite, persuade them to join the club.
